Tribune Building, New York, April 3, 1914.

Honolulu Star-Bulletin, Ltd.
Honolulu, H. I.

Dear Sirs:

LINOTYPE PRIZE COMPETITIONS.

It is our pleasure to advise you that the Judges have completed their work and that your office has been awarded SECOND PRIZE in CLASS "B" (MISCELLANEOUS JOB WORK) - this award carries with it an order for $200 worth of Linotype material and $200 in cash.

Please advise whether you wish a credit placed on our books to your account for $200 or whether you will specify material to that amount which you wish us to ship.

We also find according to the entry form that Mr. J. P. Gomes, Jr., Foreman of the Composing Room, is entitled to participate in the money prize. Please also advise the names of those of your other employees who participated in this work and among whom the money prize should be divided and tell what amounts for each one so that we can send each participator an individual check.

Thanking you for assisting us in promoting a wider interest in the possibilities of a Linotype on high grade work, and congratulating you upon your success, we are,

Yours very truly,

MERGENTHALER LINOTYPE COMPANY.
HENRY W. COZZENS,
Manager N. Y. Sales Department.
